Review's guide, 2021

DLA Piper operates a cross-border Nordic tax department, with a focus on cross-border taxation work. The Norway team is specialised in assisting domestic and multinational corporations and real estate clients. Partner Preben Aas leads the department. He is supported by associate partner Jonas Aartun.

The firm is currently advising the Skanska Group on the direct and indirect taxes associated with a number of sales and acquisitions within Norway, as well as on Norwegian real estate tax. The firm has also represented former board of directors at AS Kraftsgate 2 in a court case alleging tax fraud against the directors, as well as business misconduct.
