Recent highlights

- SAS – Scandinavian Airlines System – acting for the Unsecured Creditors’ Committee in the Chapter 11 process initiated by the SAS Group in the summer of 2022 before the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York. Founded in 1946, SAS is the largest airline in Scandinavia. The Government of Denmark and the Government of Sweden are the largest shareholders in the company, each holding 21.80% of the shares. The SAS group owes an aggregate debt of approx. SEK 30bn and, through the Chapter 11 process in the US, the company intends to attempt to convert a substantial portion of the debt into shares and seek new share capital in the market, while continuing to implement its comprehensive business transformation plan entitled SAS Forward. The Unsecured Creditors’ Committee is to ensure the best possible solution for the unsecured creditors.
- OW Bunker A/S under konkurs (in bankruptcy) – acting for a group of 24 Danish institutional investors led by major Danish pension funds ATP and PFA in a pending legal action before the Eastern High Court of Denmark concerning compensation due to prospectus liability and misstatements to the market in connection with the initial public offering (IPO) and subsequent collapse of OW Bunker A/S. OW Bunker was listed on Nasdaq Copenhagen, Copenhagen Securities Exchange, in March 2014 and a mere 7 months later the company went bankrupt following heavy losses on fuel contracts and on a fraudulent subsidiary in Singapore. In 2013 – the year before the IPO – OW Bunker had a revenue of DKK 92.3bn and was Denmark’s second largest company by revenue. The action for compensation is expected to come to a close at the Eastern High Court of Denmark during 2025.
- E. Pihl & Søn A/S under konkurs (in bankruptcy) – trustee of the bankruptcy estate of a major Danish construction company with activities on all continents except Australia. Pihl & Søn went bankrupt in 2013 and, following 10 years of international transactions, litigation and arbitration, the proceedings came to a close in 2023. The year before the bankruptcy, Pihl & Søn had 3,400 employees and a revenue of DKK 5.4bn. In Denmark, the company was known especially for iconic building and construction projects such as the Great Belt Bridge, the Royal Opera House and the Royal Playhouse in Copenhagen as well as the renovation of the exclusive Hotel d’Angleterre and the headquarters of the Confederation of Danish Industry in Copenhagen. Loss-making projects outside Denmark as well as substantial funds tied up in litigation and arbitration proceedings caused the bankruptcy.
