Simon Højfeldt Vacker specialises in real estate, including construction law and dispute resolution within the building and construction industry.

Simon provides trusted advice to various construction-industry players. He advises on risk management, preservation of evidence, contract management and claims management. He also provides assistance relating to project development as well as the sale and purchase of large and small rental properties, including the drafting and negotiation of contracts.

Simon advises especially on survey proceedings and performance-bond-payment proceedings before the Danish Building and Construction Arbitration Board. Furthermore, he deals with dispute resolution and provides advice in connection with litigation and arbitration.

Simon has been involved in a number of major linked cases within construction law and, in that context, he contributed to the preparation of comprehensive pleadings.
