Henrik Lund-Koefoed specialises in insolvency law focusing on issues relating to charges, the administration of bankruptcy estates as well as in the conduct of lawsuits regarding insolvency law before the Danish courts.

Henrik represents the Danish Guarantee Fund for Non-life Insurers in a number of contexts in relation to bankruptcies in Danish insurance companies. Henrik primarily advises financial creditors, including lenders and charge holders such as banks, insurance companies and pension companies. Henrik also advises owner managers of distressed enterprises.

He especially deals with restructuring of distressed enterprises, acting either for the principal creditor or on behalf of the distressed enterprise. Henrik is also engaged in the compulsory dissolution of companies as well as in the liquidation of solvent enterprises.

He often deals with highly complex cross-border matters and has thereby gained extensive experience of coordinating work across national borders.

Furthermore, Henrik has authored several articles on insolvency, which have been published by The Legal 500 and Chambers.
