Camilla Wollan rådgir innenfor finanssektoren og er spesialist innen finansiell regulering og teknologi. Hun arbeider med virksomhetslovgivning og lån-, betalings-, forsikring- og verdipapirtjenester i det norske markedet, herunder på IT systemsiden. Camilla har, som en del av et internasjonalt advokatfirma, særs kilt fokus på grenseoverskridende finansielle tjenester og produkter innenfor EU/EØS. Hun bistår IT selskaper, banker, forsikringsforetak, betalings- og e-pengeforetak, samt oppstartsbedrifter i Norge, så vel som internasjonale aktører med norsk virksomhetsfokus.

Camilla leder DLA Pipers satsing innenfor finansiell teknologi og har siden 2016 arbeidet med utvikling av nye konsepter og digitale forretningsmodeller gjennom TheFactory, som er en norsk innovasjonsarena og i andre akseleratormiljøer. Camilla har fulgt utvikling av nye sektorer som folkefinansiering, krypto og digitale aktiva tett gjennom sitt arbeide. Hun har lang erfaring med utvikling av nye forretningsmodeller innen finanssektoren.

Camilla har dyp ekspertise på kravene som blir stilt til regulerte foretak, produkt og tjenestekrav, IKT regulering, utkontraktering, compliance, mv. Hun har som en del av sin praksis, vært innleid hos flere banker, og har praktisk erfaring med å implementere nye regelverk, og lede store prosjekter for kunder. Hun er, sammen med Eilin Schjetne hos CEO hos EedenBull, leder for en nettverks- og faggruppe for fremtidens banktjenester og finansiell regulering under JUC-paraplyen, et faglig forum som adresserer de strukturelle endringene innen finanssektoren og praktiske løsninger på disse.
